Open Public Comments-

Derrick Williams from VMFL came out to talk about the all girls flag football league. They have gone up in the amount of members signed up from 70-80 last year to currently having 120. They have over $2,500 in sponsorships. They play until the last weekend in May.

Pat McGrory from EVLL opening day is this Saturday, April 12 at 10:00am and they will be honoring Dale Elbeuf and Jeff Valdiserri. They will be implementing the square app for the concession stand as well as the VPL. Thank you to NVLL for coordinating with the use of Romano Park for field usage.

Rebecca Cantoni wants to coach a pigtail league team but has failed the fingerprinting through the State Police. She stated she had a felony back in 1996 and she is working on the expungement to clear her of that issue. Paperwork is filed and she is waiting to hear back.

Philip Colineri-has been a coach for the last 4 years, wants to coach 10u Pigtail team for his daughter and had his fingerprints come up failed for something that happened 20 years ago. Simple assault charges-paid fine and didn't realize it was on his record since he was never told before. He was told to get the expungement process started.

Reggie Johnson- 1st Fruits of Christ Ministries church would like to get a youth basketball seminar with drills and training camp put together with kids from the church and community. He needs to submit his insurance and paperwork to the Recreation dept to get the process started. He is a certified basketball coach in Millville and does free workouts.
